專題演講 Keynote Presentation

演講主題: Our Taiwanese Community's Place in America

主講者: David Chiu 邱信福

David Chiu is the son of immigrant parents from Taiwan. He grew up in Boston and received his undergraduate, law and master's in public policy degrees from Harvard University. David served as a criminal prosecutor, a civil rights attorney, and founder of a technology company before being elected to public office. David was the first Asian American to serve as President of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, and the first Asian American to represent eastern San Francisco in the California State Legislature. The Chair of the Assembly Housing & Community Development Committee, Assemblymember Chiu has authored 48 bills signed into California law by our Governor, including laws impacting housing, transportation, civil rights, health care, education and the environment.
